

Trading Conditions

1. Introduction

1.1. These Trading Conditions form part of the legally binding Client Agreement between Rage Markets Ltd ("Rage Markets", "we", "us", "our") and you ("Client", "you", "your"). They govern all aspects of our business relationship regarding the provision of leveraged trading services in the global financial markets, including but not limited to Margin Foreign Exchange contracts ("Margin FX Contracts") and Contracts for Difference ("CFDs").

1.2. By opening a trading account with us, registering in the Client Portal, accessing ragemarkets.com, or using our trading platforms, you acknowledge and agree that:

- You have read, understood, and accepted these Trading Conditions.
- You agree to be bound by our General Terms & Conditions, Risk Disclosure Statement, Anti-Money Laundering Policy, Complaints Handling Policy, Data Protection & Privacy Policy, and all other policies and notices posted on our website.

1.3. These Trading Conditions apply to all accounts, products, and services provided by Rage Markets Ltd, unless otherwise agreed in writing.

1.4. All communication, notices, or amendments related to these Trading Conditions may be delivered electronically (including but not limited to email, in-platform notifications, website updates, or Client Portal messages) where permitted by applicable laws.

2. Account Features

2.1. Leverage Levels

- 1:100
- 1:200
- 1:500
- 1:1000
- 1:2000

2.2. Leverage Adjustments by Asset Class

Due to differences in market volatility and liquidity, the maximum leverage for certain products may be lower:

- Metals: up to 1:500

- Indices: generally up to 1:200 (selected US indices such as US30, US100, US500 up to 1:500)
- Stock CFDs: up to 1:100

2.3. Minimum Deposit Requirements

- From $50 for specific account types
- From $200 for other account types

2.4. Position Limits

The maximum total number of open positions per account is 6,000 positions per day.

2.5. Order Sizes

Minimum and maximum trade sizes are specified in the instrument contract details published on our website and may be updated at our discretion.

3. Orders

3.1. Permitted Order Types

Clients may place the following orders when opening or closing positions:

- Buy Stop – Executes a buy above the current market price.
- Sell Stop – Executes a sell below the current market price.
- Buy Limit – Executes a buy below the current market price.
- Sell Limit – Executes a sell above the current market price.
- Stop Loss – Closes an open trade to limit losses.
- Take Profit – Closes an open trade to secure profits.
- Buy Stop Limit – Activates a buy limit order once a stop price is reached.
- Sell Stop Limit – Activates a sell limit order once a stop price is reached.

3.2. Order Rejection

We may reject any order for reasons including, but not limited to:

- Market conditions are irregular or indicative pricing is in effect.
- Orders exceed minimum/maximum size restrictions.
- The client does not have sufficient margin.
- Prohibited trading strategies (e.g., certain high-frequency arbitrage) are detected.

3.3. Order Modification & Cancellation

Pending orders may be modified or canceled if they have not yet been executed. Cancellation cannot be guaranteed during rapid market moves.

4. Execution

4.1. Pricing

- BID price is used for opening sell orders and closing buy orders.
- ASK price is used for opening buy orders and closing sell orders.

4.2. Execution Speed

Orders are executed as quickly as possible under normal conditions. Network latency, internet connectivity, and platform load can impact execution time.

4.3. Slippage

During volatile market conditions or price gaps, orders may be executed at the first available market price.

4.4. Price Gaps

Orders triggered during a gap may be filled at the next available price, which could be more or less favorable than the requested price.

5. Margin

5.1. Initial Margin

Before opening a trade, you must have sufficient free margin to meet the initial margin requirement.

5.2. Margin Call Level

If margin level falls to 40%, we may begin closing positions without prior notice.

5.3. Stop-Out Level

At 20% margin level, the system will automatically close positions starting with the largest losing trade.

5.4. Negative Balance Protection

We ensure account balances do not remain negative, except in cases of intentional misuse or abuse.

6. Rollovers & Swaps

6.1. Rollover Fees

Open positions held past 00:00 server time are subject to rollover charges or credits based on interest rate differentials.

6.2. Swap-Free Accounts

Available upon request for eligible clients. Misuse of swap-free accounts (e.g., for arbitrage) may result in revocation of swap-free status and adjustment of account balances.

7. Spreads & Commissions

7.1. Spreads may be variable and can widen during low liquidity, news events, or other market conditions.

7.2. Commission charges depend on the account type and are detailed in the account specifications.

8. Corporate Actions

8.1. If an underlying instrument is affected by a corporate action (dividends, mergers, splits), adjustments will be made to maintain the economic equivalent of your position.

9. Profit & Loss

9.1. Profit or loss is calculated as the difference between the opening and closing price of a position, adjusted for lot size and instrument value.

10. Risk Acknowledgment

10.1. Leveraged trading involves substantial risk and is not suitable for all investors. You may lose your entire investment.

11. Amendments

11.1. We may amend these Trading Conditions at any time by posting the updated version on ragemarkets.com.

12. Governing Law

12.1. These Trading Conditions are governed by the laws applicable to Rage Markets Ltd.

13. Definitions

All capitalized terms have the meanings given in the General Terms & Conditions.
